Friday 11th December 2015 - Issue Twelve Autumn Term

Head teacher News

It has been wonderful to meet many of the families this week; getting to know you and your children has shown me what a strong community spirit there is here at Rayne Primary.

I thoroughly enjoyed the Foundation and Key Stage One performances of 'Whoops a Daisy Angel' this week. The children made the staff proud with their confidence and enthusiasm. Well done to all children and the staff for their hard work.

I look forward to working with you all in the new year and will endeavour to meet with you in the third week back. In the meantime, I hope the children enjoy the last week of term. Don't forget it is Christmas dinner day and festive clothing on Thursday.

Kind regards, Paul Prest (Head Teacher)

PSA Christmas Events

If you attended the PSA Christmas Fayre on Saturday you will have noted the time and effort that went into making it such a success. The volunteers worked tirelessly to create some wonderful stalls, activities and attractions. Our thanks go to everyone who played their part in raising a super £1400 for our school.

Don't forget it's disco time tonight. We look forward to seeing you there!

Social Media

It has come to our attention that parents have posted images of the Christmas play on social media sites such as Facebook. If you have posted any pictures of children in our school (other than individual photos of your own child), please remove them. Should this problem persist, we would, unfortunately, have to stop all photography at forthcoming performances, which would be a shame for all concerned.

Health & Safety Reminder

I have been asked by the kitchen staff to politely remind parents again, of the need to cut grapes and tomatoes in half.

Music Tuition

Congratulations to Isadora and Elizabeth, who received their 'Merit Certificates' today!

The current attendance figure for the school is standing at 96.43%. We don't want this to drop below 95%, so try and come to school every day!

Remember, the more you are here, the more you learn!
