Head teacher News

It's that time of year again when we are all preparing and getting ready for Christmas and of course school is no exception. The children have been busy rehearsing for the production of 'Whoops-a-Daisy Angel!' as well as learning songs and designing Christmas cards. Please do remember to hand in your Christmas lunch reply slips, if your child would like a Christmas dinner with all the trimmings on Thursday 17th!

Yesterday the children in our Reception class had a wonderful day, dressed up as superheroes! This concludes their recent topic; the quality of the written work that this has inspired, has been amazing.

Don't forget the Christmas fete this Saturday 5th December. I look forward to seeing you there between 11:00 and 14:00. My thanks go to the wonderful PSA for their tireless efforts to raise money for our school. Their hard work last year meant we have been able to invest in new books and reading areas for each of our classrooms.

On Monday Paul Prest, our interim Head Teacher, starts here at Rayne. I'm sure you will join me in offering him a warm welcome.

Kind regards, Laura Khine (Acting Head Teacher)

Bad Weather School Closure

As the time for bad weather approaches, please be aware that schools will no longer be announcing their closure on the local radio station. It is important to check the school website if there is significant snow. I would like to reassure all families that Rayne Primary will do their utmost to stay open and in the unlikely event of a closure, we will update the website as early as possible.

Health & Safety Reminder

I have been asked by the kitchen staff to politely remind parents of the need to cut grapes and tomatoes in half. This advice follows a tragic incident elsewhere in the county.

Christmas Jumper Day!

We have decided to make Thursday 17th December

Christmas Jumper day! Please send your child in festive clothing for a fun day!
