

Newsletter: 1st December 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

Winter has certainly arrived and the festive season is upon us. The PSA Christmas Fete is the first of many special school events and it would be wonderful to see as many families attend as possible. There is a whole host of stalls and refreshments for sale and even a visit from Santa and his elves! This week the Key Stage 1 children visited the Civic Theatre in Chelmsford to watch the pantomime 'Snow White'. For many children this was their first experience of live drama and I must say they all represented the school brilliantly. One of the attendants on duty made a point of approaching Miss Edwards to congratulate the school. She commented that our children were 'smart, polite and behaved beautifully'. She also said how well organised and helpful the staff were in ensuring those high expectations were met. I believe we are all very blessed to be part of the Rayne School Community and we must continue to work in partnership with all stakeholders to retain our high standards.
